

Our Roots

Declaration of Independence created in 1776 and is the 1st organic law.

United States of America included in same and is designated as the Republic.

UNITED STATES is included in same as a corporation and existed before the Revolutionary War. See Republica v. Sweers, 1 Dallas 43, and 28 USC 3002(15) and is designated as the democracy.

Articles of Confederation created in 1777 by colonies and is designated as the 2nd organic law. Article I of the Articles of Confederation includes United States of America designated as the Republic government for people.

Articles of Confederation include the United States in it as is designated as the democracy.

None of the seals or constitutions of the colonies were submitted to the people to be voted on.

Constitution for the United States of America never ratified by founding fathers and is the 3rd organic law.

Northwest Ordinance of 1787 never ratified by the founding fathers and is the 4th organic law.

U.S. Constitution created in 1787 for corporate government.

On August 9, 1790, Article One of the U.S. Statutes at Large (pages 138-178) abolished the State of the Republic and created Federal Districts in the same year the former States of the Republic reorganized as corporations and their legislatures wrote new State Constitutions absent defined boundaries, which they presented to the people of each state for a vote. Why this time? Because the new state constitutions fraudulently made the people citizens of the new corporate state for 220 years until present.

1) In 2011, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania brought forward the original constitution and seal, submitted same to people and brought forward the lawful nation and state under Article II of the Articles of Confederation, which states "the states retain their sovereignty and independence" and submitted paperwork to the Hague, Universal Postal Union, Berne Switzerland and the United Nations.

2) In 2011, New Hampshire followed.

3) In 2011, New York followed.

4) In 2011, New Jersey followed.

5) In 2011, Maryland followed.

6) In 2011, Virginia followed.

7) In 2011, North Carolina followed.

8) In 2011, South Carolina followed.

9) In 2011, Georgia followed.

In 2013, the nine colonies above met and joined together to form the Republic (just as in 1777) and filed Notice Number 1 to the Hague, United Nations, Universal Postal Union, Berne Switzerland, and also noticed the Pentagon.

In 2014, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Delaware and Connecticut brought forward as lawful nations/states under Article II of the Articles of Confederation.

In 2015, the 13 colonies came forward as lawful nations/states and convened Continental Congress, set up the Committee of States to bring forward territories and sent notice to the Hague, United Nations, Universal Postal Union, Berne Switzerland, and also noticed the Pentagon.

In 2018, Committees of States convened and brought forward 24 territories, 13 colonies, Republic of Texas, and Monarchy of Hawai'i to form Republic of 39 nations/states under Republic with Notice 3 sent to Hague, United Nations, Universal Postal Union, Berne Switzerland, and also noticed the Pentagon.

Currently working to bring forward 9 remaining territories.

Committees of States will then go out of business and Continental Congress will convene and bring forward 500 plus Indian Tribes into Republic via treaty.

Continental Congress will finally bring forward Canadian Provinces into Republic under the Articles of Confederation to form a Republic in North America from Alaska to Mexican border and Hawai'i to Atlantic Ocean.
